

Membership Application & Renewal

Believing that I am eligible, I hereby apply for membership in the Petroleum Accountants Society of Kansas. After reading the extracts from the By-Laws, I promise, if accepted, to abide by the By-Laws of the Society.

The By-Laws of the Society read in part as follows:

- Object: The object of this Society shall be to develop, improve, extend, and as far as possible, standardize petroleum accounting.
- Membership: Membership in this Society shall be open to individuals over 21 years of age who are genuinely interested in the aims and objects of the Society and who are willing to subscribe to the Charter and By-Laws.

Applicants must be:

1. Residents of the State of Kansas,
2. Actively engaged as accounting officers, or provided that their duties consist in whole or in part of executive supervision over or control of all or a part of the accounting of a company in the Petroleum Industry, or,
3. Actively engaged as an Auditor or Accountant (either independently or as an employee, officer or partner in an independent accounting firm) for a company actively engaged in the Petroleum Industry, or
4. To qualify for an associate membership: Actively engaged in a directly related field to the Oil and Gas Industry, and whose duties and responsibilities have a direct relationship to the accounting function of the Oil and Gas Industry. This membership has no voting rights.
5. To qualify for an academic membership: Pursuing education in the accounting field, be over the age of 18, and attending a 2 or 4 year college in the State of Kansas. This membership has no voting rights.
6. Retired members that have formerly been qualified Members may be admitted under such rules established by the Board of Directors. This membership has no voting rights.
